

How To Social Distance & Still Find True Love

Wondering if now is the right time to pursue dating during a global pandemic?

The answer is YES... most certainly.

Why?

With social distancing being the rule of the day, there's never been a better time to connect via telephone, facetime, and/or the internet.

This is such a wonderful opportunity to focus on getting to know "the person" while removing the physical aspect that sometimes can get in the way.

The best part about it is that you can have 'dates' in the comfort of your own home.

In my opinion, there has never been a better time to find true love.

My Best Dating Suggestions

- Have dinner together while on FaceTime.
- Watch the news together and discuss it afterwards. (Assuming you are like minded politically)
- Play a board game together. You move the pieces.
- Make a dinner together. Decide in advance the menu.
- Share photos of your favorite trip.
- Watch a travelogue together of a place you both would like to see.
